

The big business marketplace

Business for sale more than 15 years

ID 19463

Offer Corporate sales, firm sales, sales Transportation device fabrication

For sale is an export-oriented, reputable business with a known for many years, electric-powered transportation device of own design, which wheelchair passengers can be safe transported over stairs. The developed product is in continuous production and has already sold several thousand copies. Thanks to significant unique selling points, performance and quality features the latest development has an excellent potential for expansion on the world market.

For sale is the complete product line including: world exclusive production and distribution rights, technical and commercial know-how, trademarks, customer and supplier relationships, exhibition equipment and spare parts warehouse. The products currently are manufactured in commissioned by a qualified European producers operating. The existing manufacturing agreement may be continued or resolved.

The business is location-independent and is assigned without value assets and liabilities, business inventory, personnel and leases, etc., is therefore suitable for easy integration both in an existing or a new company.

Addressed are trading and manufacturing companies, which are focused on the sale of technical products and have capacity for further expansion of the global sales network.

The sale is due to retirement of the sole owner and company founder.

Corporate sales

Region 84, Switzerland

Entry in own name

More informations and contact

www.biz-trade.eu/ma-19463.htm