B and B with alcohol- and wedding license

Successful 4-Stars B&B in North-East Scotland, inmidst Malt Whisky Country is after more than 10 years for sale.

The parish church of now around 400 sqm over two floors (plus further parts to develop) has been converted in 1990 and is positioned inmidst farmland and forests in a part of Scotland renowned for its very mild climate on its own hillock of appr. 2 acres (small forest, lawn, pond, small waterfall). The bell tower still hosts the bell which is now connected with a clock as to add to the ambience every day and for weddings the bell might be ring in full. This is the ideal property and business for a husband and wife or team of friends! ...or with one part-time assistant only...
