Look for Corporate financing, investor Digital screen advertising

Digital screen advertising:

To strengthen the purchasing power in small regions - to hold.
Positioned bad business to highlight companies.

placing monitors at various points in the region to which companies can introduce businesses, retail shops and services. (Selling ad space.)

Presentation at public places. (Waiting room, bistro - cafe, gym, etc.)

- In protected areas.
- At places where a stay of passers-by formed.
- Free of charge for cities and clubs.
- Support for social services.

By integrating various public bodies, the content is not as pure advertising media, but more as infotainment. The acceptance of the advertiser is higher.

Retailers, industry and service providers looking for cost effective advertising media with which they can draw attention to their innovative products and services.

This presentation medium is interesting for almost all sectors in goods and services and opened ourselves a huge market.

To develop further sites Financial resources are needed, which I lack. Soon we would be able to equip 25 sites ... But without capital to us that customer will come off well.

Need unbureaucratic capital.
