Offer Corporate sales, firm sales, sales Online Portal Classifieds

We offer an open online platform where students can offer apartments, flats, furniture, electronics, books, etc. to other students in electronic ads, which they would otherwise have had to laboriously distribute with papers throughout the university. In addition to the ad feature, our platform also offers basic community features. The advertising boards have currently been set up for each German university and university and are networked with each other. So we have laid the groundwork for addressing all 2 million students in Germany.
