Retail-Pet Market

Search Investor or silent Partner for the Reopening of a Pet Market in a good Location and promising Catchment Area.

The Love for the Pet is unbroken. More than 22 Million Pets currently live in German Households, fish not counted. Even now, Pets are Part of more than a Third of all Households – Trend is rising. Year after Year, German Citizens spend nearly 4 Billion Euros on Pet Food and accessories.

But the Diversity of Products in this Area creates an increasing Customer desire for good Advice on Feed purchases and this further offers Specialist Retailers good growth opportunities in this Segment.

When Buying Accessories, the Consumer Is already clearly relying on Specialist Market expertise. Linen, Buttons and Co. 81 Percent Are already being bought from Specialist Retailers.

I have completed a completed Apprenticeship in the Zoo Sector with several years of professional and Sales experience in Retail as a Branch manager.
