Look for Corporate financing, investor Game Development

The Offer is Mainly about raising Time and Money to open my own small Game Developer "Company." A lot of Money has to be invested in Licenses for Programs and Freelancers for 3D Object Modeling.

Games are gaining an increasingly hearing standard and People are investing more And more money in these and Your InGame Shops. That's why I'm currently working on two Online Games and hopefully more in the Future. The PC Online Survival Game is designed to encourage players to inhabit a completely new Planet and survive there. With an InGame Shop, they can then become Individual.

The Trading Card Game is designed to delight players with unprecedented new Features on the Market. These Types of Games bring several Million to the Market based on similar games.

I currently work as An Application developer at a Time Tracking Company nine Hours a Day.
