For sale for private reasons is our pizza delivery service with an authentically Italian concept. The concept (baking on stone oven, hand-processed dough, use of fresh Italian ingredients) was developed together with an Italian cooking lecturer and stands out from the competition due to its uniqueness.

The pizzeria is fully equipped and has an open kitchen with a small guest area (ventilation system available), toilet, flushing kitchen, large cold store and several large storage areas in the basement.

Existing driver classification can be taken over.

If you are interested in more detailed information on monthly sales and tax evaluations, I look forward to hearing from you.
