Look for Corporate follow-up, firm follow-up, follow-up Insurance broker

One of our clients wants to expand his activities in the field of brokering insurance in Bavaria through acquisition. In order to maintain good customer contact, the individual locations should be preserved. The aim is to realize synergies in the administration and to build a better negotiating position with insurance providers due to the greater potential for revenue. In order to ensure a good handover, the seller should be available for a transition period.
