Our mission is love.

We have been one of the adults who have maintained the desire for gimmicks and toys for many years. We have experience. And we always have sophisticated ideas to make life more exciting. That's why we founded Meditoys.

Meditoys is not a corporation. Meditoys is an owner-managed company headquartered in Munich. The decision to initially market our high-quality products exclusively online has only economic reasons. We would like to hand over our products manufactured in Germany to you and the many other friends of the scene at the lowest possible price.

Save your money, but don't spar your love for the toys of Meditoys. Let's play again.
