Online portal Tourism Market

One or more co-entrepreneurs with a passion for dogs and travel as a reinforcement sought (online platform tourism industry) team of two people based in Cologne, is seeking reinforcements for the further expansion of a new type of online platform in the tourism industry.

The project: What initially began as a small, private project for an end in itself and for fun in the cause is to be further expanded into a professional and profitable online portal.

It is a very target-group-focused internet platform in the tourism and leisure industry. The concept goes an important step further than other platforms in the same market. The potential range is about 10 to 15 mio users nationally, and around 50 to 60 mio in Europe.

The current test run already provided valuable insights into the market and the target group, which are now being recycled and incorporated. The platform initially covers the German-speaking world.
