Wholesale and retail

The company for sale is a wholesale and retail trade of bicycles, spare parts and accessories. The wholesale bicycle trade was first founded in 1910. The owner-managed family business is now successfully active in the market in the second generation and has been a partner of specialist retailers and the end user for more than 100 years. The company's purpose is based on the production and distribution of high-quality branded bicycles as well as the trade in bicycles and spare parts. Customers are mostly commercial and private customers.
