Offer Corporate sales, firm sales, sales Horticultural business

The company is available for sale and is a horticultural development company with a flower trade in Lower Saxony. The company is active in the gardening and landscaping industry and ensures the professional redesign, redesign and maintenance of private, commercial and public facilities. The many years of experience ensure optimal advice and the professional execution of the work, which has given the company a very good reputation. The company also includes a well-thriving flower shop, where the customer is offered attractive, modern arrangements. The launch in the form of a takeover with the existing customer base and the good reputation that the company enjoys is much easier for the buyer than for a new founder, especially since the operational infrastructure is in place, which proves itself daily in the operations processes.
