Dog food business

The organic raw feeding (b.a.r.f.) of dogs and cats is becoming increasingly important. For sale is an attractive pet food business with growth potential in a top location and a high-cost clientele. The focus is on the sale of fresh meat and the preparation of healthy and species-appropriate food (b.a.r.f.). Also offered are natural chewing items, dog biscuits and treats, feed additives, toiletries, linen + collars, baskets, accessories, etc. The store has a fixed regular clientele and has become a permanent focal point for many dogs and their owners. A delivery service is provided, which is regularly used by customers. The store has a professional website and is active on Facebook as well as connected to a network of animal dyes, animal health practitioners, animal trainers, gassie service etc.
