Looking for an investor for my vacation home rental company.

The amount of the loan should be a maximum of 15,000 EUR and serves only to bridge a current liquidity weakness of my company.

My idea would be to recoup the investment within 24 months with an individually agreed interest rate.

The business itself has been going very well for about 8 years and is very healthy, but last year I had a lot of unpredictable costs and that alone is the reason for finding a small financial injection.
