Offer Corporate participation, firm participation Destination Management Services

The company occupies an attractive niche in the field of tourism services, such as the implementation of city and overland tours, excursions and events, and is growing very strongly. In particular through contracts with the major Internet portals and the major travel providers.

The company is very expansionary and is looking for capital to finance further market development.

Due to the strong growth there is the possibility of active cooperation. Optimal conditions for investors, with the desire to live on Mallorca and to participate in the very positive market development from the increasing quality tourism.
