Look for Corporate participation, firm participation

Retail

For our online web shop and the brand we are looking for an entrepreneur who is willing and able to fill this business with life. We offer a free shareholding of up to 49% in our company and expect in return a partner who, as managing director, is able and motivated to operate and develop an online shop in the lifestyle/fashion segment on a full-time basis. The web shop is ready-to-use, but must be optimized on the product side. It has been invested in the GMBH, the brand and the online platform approx. 50,000.00 €. We are experienced sales professionals who work full-time and only want to play a passive role in day-to-day business. Support in the revision/reorientation of the business model of a business plan is promised.
