Look for Corporate follow-up, firm follow-up, follow-up Outpatient care service

A young team is looking for company succession in outpatient care.

We are a team of two economists with experience in the outpatient care service and interested in a company taking on an outpatient care service with excellent reputation, in the region of Bavaria. Because of the usual events, we became aware of the care of the elderly during our studies and have aligned our studies in the direction of social activity. We submit our application to all sales experts who want to place your hard-won company in good hands and also something who are interested in both customer and employee welfare.

We guarantee the company take care of your employees and offer a fair price for your care service. You should be in a smooth process, as a reference the shore, you should be us when it comes to questions.
