Food production

For 3.5 years, the company has been involved in the manufacture and sale of purely, vegetable specialty products, one of the megatrends in the food trade in as well.

Here, especially healthy, natural products are in the foreground. The company has a number of unique selling points in this relationship.

The company is on a strong growth path and was able to increase sales by 50% last year.

As a result of nationwide new services, sales will increase by up to 100% again this year and the company will be in the black. The range development of the specialty business, such as a "mainstream" orientation, is conceivable.

The products are of the highest quality, which is also proven by external results in customer audits.

There is a German production facility, an experienced team and a top brand - very successful in the core target group in social media - available.

The value of the company was assessed by a renowned tax law firm and valued at € 2.5million.

Offered are a majority stake with the possibility of active participation as GF. Also a minority participation or a takeover are conceivable.

Against bid.
