Online retail

An online retailer with its own brand for sporting goods, founded in , is for sale. Sales for amounted to around EUR 750, and this figure is rising sharply. Production is carried out in Asia, so far sales have taken place primarily through Amazon and are limited to Europe. Great expansion potential (e.g. introduction of further already considered products, market entry in the USA, expansion of own online shop). Support in the transition phase is possible by previous owners (online marketing expert with a lot of know-how and experience). A great opportunity for anyone who aims of flexible and location-independent self-employment or wants to expand their existing business.

Everything else is welcome on request.
