Offer Corporate follow-up, firm follow-up, follow-up Architecture and engineering firm

The architecture and engineering firm for sale offers the buyer the opportunity to acquire a profitable company that has been able to develop a name in the catchment area over time. In addition to growing sales of more than EUR 1.5 million, the company generates a pre-tax profitability of around 8%.

The sales figure size is significantly higher than the industry average, and a qualified staff has also been established in recent years. In doing so, the team combines a high innovation potential and offers a comprehensive service portfolio. The company's services include, among other things, entire construction projects from planning to completion. For the continuation of the company, a at best experienced architect or civil engineer is sought, who is actively accompanied by the entrepreneurs in the handover phase.
