Offer Corporate sales, firm sales, sales Energy advice

We are a service company in the energy industry and since the end of we have ensured that our customers regularly receive the optimal conditions for their energy contracts. Close customer loyalty to our customers and market partners has ensured a stable customer base for years, which is constantly growing and enables us to have an extraordinarily good recommendation business.

At the end of , we started from scratch. To date, the company has built up a database of more than 3,000 customers-while sales and profits are growing steadily.

We currently have two branches (inner city location) with well-trained employees who ensure that our customers are doing well on a daily basis. The company is for sale all as well as with integrated employees, customer base and network to external market partners.

At present, we are mainly operating regionally.
