Look for Corporate participation, firm participation IT companies

For the purpose of establishing a joint IT company, I am looking for a suitable business partner or co-founder.

In addition to consulting, system and network administration, the range of services also includes conception and implementation of web designs according to individual customer requirements.

The basic prerequisite for participation in the foundation is the availability of technical and professional knowledge as well as social skills.

All further information and details will be published via private news.
