Look for Joint Venture, venture by a partnership

Vintage trade

I am looking for investors for the trade in classic cars

Restoration work should also be carried out in our own workshop.

We want to be able to present our clients with a large portfolio by having many unique pieces ready at all times in order to be able to respond to the individual wishes of each buyer.

The charm of the old cars, chrome flashing and with curved lines, reprocessed and restored lifestyle works of art, which we want to sell to our customers. It should not only be about the car alone, but also about all the emotions that are associated with it.
