Look for Corporate follow-up, firm follow-up, follow-up Manufacturing companies, construction

we are looking for a company for the purpose of succession.

To my person, I am 27 years old and for more than 7 years manager in the chemical building materials industry and have already gained first experience in self-employment. Since I would like to set up my own company, I am looking for a company to expand my company in order to optimize my knowledge in the company depending on the market and company structure.

I would have liked to have started a company from the Pike myself, but this is not easy nowadays without a large flow of capital.

My financial resources are limited, so a takeover by instalment payment or by permanent burden (e.g. 10 years) would be optimal.

I look forward to hearing from you.
