Offer Corporate follow-up, firm follow-up, follow-up Building cleaning / property management

The company focuses on the care of real estate with caretaker service, building cleaning, garden maintenance and winter service. There are long-term stable customer relationships and contracts. Currently, the long-term order situation is very good and additional employees would have to be hired to process new orders.

The owner separates himself from his company for private reasons. This enjoys an excellent reputation in the industry and is one of the regional market leaders.

The company is located in the western Ruhr area with convenient transport connections and good infrastructure.

The main focus of the building cleaning company is the cleaning of large residential units as well as garden maintenance. The company's operating units have been working independently and have been very successful for over 13 years. The owner is on hand to provide advice and establish the central customer contacts with the long-standing main clients.
