Laundry

The laundry is centrally located in in the Bavarian Forest.

The laundry was previously operated as the owner of the former nursing home until the insolvency of the home in April . The house was converted into a multi-family/multi-generational house at the end of last year. Since then, the laundry has ceased to operate. Possible customers consist of various industries (catering, hotel industry, homes) as well as private customers. The expandable business model is ideal for a committed couple from the textile cleaning industry.

The laundry has a separate ground-level access as well as a laundry lock and is spatially separated from the apartments. The operator has at his disposal a pass-through industrial washing machine with hot-water connection with a dryer (both steel).

Sustainability, regionality and customer orientation are the focus of this business model.
