Vacation rental

Mediterranean natural stone villa (524 sqm living space, several 100 sqm terraces and balconies, 965 sqm plot, a total of more than 12 rooms) in the suburb of Petrovja of the fashionable swimming and sports centre (approx. 3 km away), where every summer the clay court tournament of the ATP World Tour is carried out. A house that is not yet awarded in the 5 star national category, but has the potential for it.

On the almost 1,000 sqm plot there are three other houses, besides the typical and historically looking, rustic natural stone villa and the 25 sqm swimming pool three other residential houses, which are sold with. A very cozy two-party house, attached to another natural stone house. A third stone house is located in the rear part of the property, which is still in the completion phase.
