Offer Corporate sales, firm sales, sales Trading operations

It is a long-established family business that has grown over several generations. The sale is due to a lack of company succession. There are long supplier and customer relationships with a fixed customer base, which is served at the same intervals. Very good return and high expansion potential - if desired. The associated properties are not sold; however, the company location is very flexible to relocate to NRW. It can be induction by the current owner up to one year.
