Dear Interested,

an investor / silent participant is sought for our company.

We are a continuously growing wholesaler in the field of mobile phone accessories - and spare parts. For almost two decades now, we have been able to establish ourselves in the market. Despite numerous competitors, we are able to set ourselves different from our competitors thanks to a clever concept. The industry is very lucrative and we will continue to boom in the future. We mainly sell to B2B customers.

In order to meet the increasing customer needs, the investment in the purchase of goods and in expansion is to flow.

With us you have a strong company at your side.

The next steps and more information can be explained in an interview.
