Look for Corporate sales, firm sales, sales Construction, construction supply

On behalf of our client, we are looking for construction companies or a construction supplier company.

The client is a medium-sized construction company based in Hesse. The aim of the acquisition is to form a group of companies in the construction industry.

Companies should operate independently on the market and exploit synergies.

Imported names do not disappear. Instead, long-term success with sustainable value enhancement is to be ensured through shared strengths and partnership.

Our prospective buyer has a competent management team with many years of experience in board, advisory board and organ functions as well as comprehensive line responsibility.

The ideal company is an established, medium-sized company with a good positioning in the market and a reliable and experienced workforce.
