Offer Joint Venture, venture by a partnership

Personalberatung

We have been a successful hrconsultant for many years and would like to expand our consulting services. For this we are looking for a partner*in, with expertise in the field of consulting/coaching of executives.

For example:

Individual individual training for job interviews

Individual career advice

etc. in the upscale segment (management)

Active career support with placement can also be an offer.

Regionally we are not bound because we are technically well equipped.
