Shipping Logistics, Packaging, Graphics & Printing

Emerging service company seeks active partners or successors

Focused on commercial customers, we offer all services in the field of goods transport (logistics/micrologistics).

Micrologistics/warehousing for small and medium-sized enterprises incl. warehousing, packaging (which we also individualise according to the customer's wishes), shipping, reversals and accounting are possible contents of this overall concept. In this field, we already support international engineering companies, but also regional producers for (e.g. fruit juice drinks producers). The latter also use our service to provide holistic support to their internet shops and website; from the creation to the maintenance and updating of new goods we offer a complete service.
