Look for Corporate financing, investor Recruitment

Around 200,000 skilled workers will be missing from the care sector by 2025. Sponsoring companies spend millions on direct recruitment. On average, €3,500 per position to be filled.

We don't want a nursing home as a customer, we take ALL directly.

A complete catalogue of all nursing homes, nursing services, hospitals together with contact details is created. All entries are free standard entries, but can be edited by the institutions. For better search placements, receipt of applications and place requests, a premium entry is required.

The entries generate search engine traffic.

The focal point is the establishment of a Europe-wide recruitment agency. Customer acquisition via the strategic "detour" entry on a premium portal.

Premium packages are designed in such a way that customers "drive best" in the calculation of the individual brokerage, calculated in the most expensive package.
