Real estate

a trained real estate agent establishes a company for the purchase and sale of real estate, according to the so-called Flix and Flip model.

This company is capital intensive and needs investors who have capital and want to increase it without effort with rapid rotation.

The company will initially play the market.

Properties that have significant appreciation potential in terms of nature are purchased.

It is preferable to sell to owner-occupiers.

As a founder, I lack the capital of this amount and therefore I am looking for one or more financial partners, because not only single-digit trading transactions are to be carried out per year. For me, it is important to have a long-term partnership on an equal footing with common goals.

You benefit from high return on equity per project with a safe and short-term investment. The project period will be between 6 and 12 months per object.
