Retail with bistro

For sale is a successful for 25 years individual company from the retail and gastronomy sectors.

The company is now to be sold for reasons of age.

The company sells teas, tea accessories and chocolates. In addition, a bistro (indoor and outdoor catering) is operated. A stand at Christmas time completes the offer.

The shop with bistro is located in a top location of an attractive Hessian city and is heavily frequented.

The buyers and guests are mainly regular customers. Relations with renowned producers have existed for many years and are very good. There is territorial protection.

The company has achieved good sales in recent years. Profit margins are sector compliant.

The marketing strategy focuses on a successful word-of-mouth propaganda and a professional website with an online shop (will not be marketed).

The company has a stable and experienced team of employees.
