Fintech

Fintech is looking for investors or partners

We are looking for a partner (active/passive, silent or direct) or advanced financier for our Fintech network of consultants for software enhancement and expansion. After years of development and successful test runs, extensive orders worth billions have already been secured.

Expansion area includes the AI application for financial services/brokers, corporate, tax and M&A advisors, investors, RAs, supply chain managers etc. who use this automated software (specified algorithms incl. KI-AI) with matching in Generate suitable business partners and clients in real time. Due to additional follow-up, procurement orders and consulting mandates with cross-selling in an internal cycle of consultants, there are significant cross-sector synergy effects. We are open to the type of participation and can vary it flexibly according to your specifications. Research requests will not be served. Details against NDA only
