Dietary supplement

Offer a new product/registered trademark in the field of dietary supplements (NEM) or sports drinks. It is a beverage instant powder from the group of drinking meals or meal replacement drinks launched in 2021 and already available on the market. The main components are carbohydrate carriers and three milk protein sources, in addition to usual vitamins, minerals.

The modern concept contains an innovative ingredient that makes it much easier for consumers to take it permanently and meets the increasing health awareness. In an external product test, the taste properties were rated above average.

The offer includes: registered trademark/brand name, O. recipe/recipe collection, domains (TLD), image and text rights, homepage, all certificates/documents, manufacturer/supplier contacts, EAN codes, etc. Furthermore, goods already produced.
