Funeral home

To finance the acquisition of a renowned company with over 30 years of company history, I am looking for investors who support this path.

The benefits program includes both traditional burial and alternative burials.

It can be offered the execution of the entire funeral process from the transfer and completion of all formalities to the funeral service and burial.

The target groups are survivors of the deceased, as well as seniors.

Spatially, the target area includes a radius of about 60 km around the funeral home as a direct target group, as an extended catchment area is set at about 100 km radius.

Through first-class quality, attractive price-performance ratio and above-average service in conjunction with competent advice and support by trained staff, customers can be offered individual support and support.
