Online shop for high-quality sexual wellbeing products with clear niche positioning. Modern, appealing design, top modern technology, top ranking on Google.

The steadily growing online shop was founded in 2001 and is a well-known, renowned specialist supplier of condoms in a variety of sizes and types, as well as other related items such as lubricants, toys and massage products.

The online shop was relaunched six months ago. The look is top-modern and appealing, it is equipped with a variety of sales-promoting features and the software is top-modern and among the most popular worldwide.

The company can be controlled from anywhere, as the logistics are outsourced and employees are location-independent.

Some tasks (fulfilment, marketing, accounting) are (partially) outsourced to highly professional and renowned providers.

The company can be run by just a few employees. The company's website has about 30,000 users per month.

The average shopping cart is about 30 EUR.

The conversion rate is about 3-5 %.

The marketing strategy is professional; at the same time, this is where there is the most potential for growth.

The expected growth of the company is good. In 2022, a turnover of about EUR 800,000 should be reached. The company should be able to grow continuously in the coming years.
