Look for Corporate follow-up, firm follow-up, follow-up

Mail order, consumables, laboratory supplies (B2B)

We are a renowned and successful company with many years of experience in the order business.

In order to better exploit our sufficient available capacities, we are looking for a trading company with a turnover of up to 2 million to take over or cooperate, or individual product groups that complement our portfolio appropriately.

If you have suitable products or sets for packing/assembly, but there is a lack of space and personnel, then we can help you with storage space and experienced employees.

All this can take place promptly. We expect a thorough induction to get to know your company, your products and your customer base.
