Natural stone and tile specialist shop/laying operationoperation

Natural stone and tile shop / laying business for sale.

Successor wanted for well-run business for reasons of age.
This traditional family business, today one of the leading tile and natural stone dealers in Westmünsterland, has been on the market for more than 30 years and is looking for a successor (m/f/d) for its well-established natural stone and tile specialist shop/laying business. The business offers large showroom, indoor and outdoor storage, office space and good customer base. It is a good opportunity for new entrant or existing construction - preferably flooring contractor looking for another location or foothold, expanded customer base with predictable and stable order budget and excellent skilled staff. Takeover of company equipment, customers, manufacturers, suppliers and, in the event of a sale within the framework of a classic succession arrangement, thorough familiarisation and conscientious handover is guaranteed.

- Broad network of suppliers and purchase of goods mostly directly from the manufacturers
- Long-standing customer base with private and business customers
- high added value, consulting, sales, delivery up to installation, all from one source
- has an excellently staffed and technically equipped team of skilled workers
- Managing partner is flexibly available for a joint transition period
