Campsite with ensemble of buildings, in a scenic location, adjacent to the nature reserve Ahrenviölfelder Westermoor, for sale.

This protected area is part of the "Natura 2000" project, a coherent network of protected areas of paramount importance in Europe. On its own property is the water hiker's deployment point "Hünning" of the Treene. The Treene is a river flowing from east to west, which flows into the Eider at river kilometer 73.4.

The campsite has 66 pitches and around 20 pitches for tents. Pitches for permanent campers are currently not offered. The infrastructure of the campsite has been completely renewed in recent years.

For guests arriving by caravan or motorhome, there is a modern sanitary building with underfloor heating, disabled toilet and flushing area.
