All-rounder in the trade

All-round company in the trade is looking for a successor. The owner asked us to advise him and support him in his search for a successor.

The company offers a wide range of services in the field of renovation and refurbishment for commercial and private customers, specifically services such as tiling and refurbishment, electrical work, painting and plastering, planning and engineering activities.

In recent years, sales have increased by double-digit rates.

We are looking for a master craftsman with experience who would like to take over a business with many customers, a fixed turnover and a good staff or another provider who would like to expand spatially
