I am looking for a successor for my specialist shop for creative textile design in . The shop is located in the city centre, just a 5-minute walk from the S-Bahn and regional train stations. Founded in 1994 in Berlin Charlottenburg, the company moved to its current location in the centre of in . There is a fixed customer and supplier base that has developed continuously over the years. I carry a large and constantly updated selection of more than 1000 fabrics from all over the world, mainly consisting of natural materials such as cotton, linen, silk. In addition, ribbons, cords, borders, buttons, fleece material and everything else you need for sewing. A variety of courses teach sewing and design techniques for beginners or advanced users.

The prerequisite for taking over the business is the purchase of the shop equipment and the current inventory. Induction can be arranged.
