Ecommerce

I am looking for an established e-commerce company to take over and strategically develop. My focus is on sustainable growth, process optimization and scaling of existing sales structures.

What I'm looking for:

- ? Companies with an existing and active OTTO shop
- ? Retail or e-commerce companies with functioning supplier relationships
- ? Possibility to optimize processes, expand assortment or scale the marketplace business

My goal:

I would like to take over a solid company and expand it further through my experience in e-commerce, supply chain management and strategic scaling. My focus is on optimising processes, increasing efficiency and sustainable growth on OTTO and other relevant marketplaces.

I guarantee a serious and discreet transaction and am interested in both a share deal and an asset deal.
