Search for an established company with growth potential for succession.

You run an established company and are looking for a regulated succession. I am a dedicated and reliable entrepreneur who is looking for a stable business with development potential for acquisition.

My focus is on companies that:

have been successfully established on the market for many years.

Have a proven good profit margin.

Opportunities for scalability and further development.

Do not exceed a manageable team size of a maximum of 15.

I aim to rent the current location and thus ensure continuity for employees and customers; a real estate purchase is excluded. A smooth transition is a matter of course for me in order to get to know and secure your company, your values and your customer relationships in the best possible way.
