Nature campsite in a lakeside location on a freehold property – potential for expansion to over 300 pitches

For sale is a well-kept nature campsite in a unique location: directly lakeside with its own gently sloping sandy beach and bathing jetties. The excellent water quality offers ideal conditions for bathers and water sports enthusiasts.

In addition to pitches for campers, there are also several fully equipped rentals available that are included in the offer.

The natural surroundings attract in particular those seeking relaxation, water sports enthusiasts, cyclists and hiking enthusiasts.

For reasons of discretion, you will be happy to receive further information on personal request. We look forward to hearing from you.
