Look for Corporate follow-up, firm follow-up, follow-up Digital Marketing

Maybe you started as a freelancer.

Maybe you come from a classic advertising or print agency.

Maybe you've tried "digital" – and realized: Winning customers, scaling and working profitably is harder than you thought.

Many start with passion. But at some point they realize:

Interest ? business

Revenue ? profit

Marketing costs more than expected

The heart burns – but the account balance freezes

We know this – and we can help.

We are profitable, have an experienced team, fixed structures and customers from SEO, SEA, social, programmatic, tracking & analytics – B2B and B2C, nationally and internationally.

What we are looking for:

Agencies, freelancers, or small teams that are going out of business or looking for a partner.

Crucially, there are existing customers or ongoing projects that we can take over and continue from day 1.
