

Offer Corporate sales, firm sales, sales

Data and Network Technology Specialist Retailers

The company offers its customers innovative, individual solutions in the field of telecommunications, network and data technology. The service includes sales and consulting.

There is decades of industry experience and customer loyalty.

The customer base ranges from industry and the public sector to operators of networks and data centers.

The managing director is supported by about 10 employees.

In recent years, the company has achieved annual sales of € 3 – 4 million.

Advancing digitalization, such as the data center sector and related services, offers further growth potential.

The property is rented.

The intended sale of the company will take place in the course of a succession plan among the shareholders. The managing director will continue to be available.

Corporate sales

Region 68, Germany

Entry on behalf

More informations and contact

www.biz-trade.eu/ma-26404.htm