For family reasons, we are giving up our lovingly run old town café in the district town of (Main Kinzig district), which we have run with heart and built up and established regionally over the past 5 years.

Known for homemade cakes according to grandma's recipe, delicious breakfast variations and café specialties in combination with very high-quality products, the café enjoys a loyal regular clientele and top location in the historic old town.

This old town and the Imperial Palace attract around 1 million visitors and tourists every year.
